

Graduate Students in HIST 431/631

Graduate students enrolled under the 631 number are responsible for all the same work as undergraduate students, but also have other requirements entailing additional reading and composition of a review essay. Early in the term Prof. Isern will meet by arrangement with the graduate students, hand out a sheet summarizing expectations, and talk about graduate work in the course.

Home Page HIST 431